While Flames Roared Behind Them, Ceylonese Concessionaire Kept Woman From Jumping From Third-Story Ledge.

HE PRAYED TO BUDDHA AND CLUNG TO WINDOW

Sealing Ladders Used as Last Hope, Carried Them to Safety—They Could Have Held on But a Minute Longer.

On a third-story mansard ledge five inches wide, at 5:20 o'clock Thursday morning, J. H. Grairo of Ceylon held to the window casing with one hand and with the other prevented Mrs. Clara Lucas from dashing herself to the ground.

Flames licked at the hand at the casing and the pain was maddening, but he held on in desperation, and the woman screaming for help, until the firemen came and took them down by means of scaling ladders.

If they had been a moment later Grairo would have been tortured into releasing his hold and Mrs. Lucas and he would have hurled themselves down.

Grairo is a concessionaire in the Ceylon building at the World's Fair. Mrs. Lucas is employed at the same building. Both have rooms at the three-story double World's Fair rooming house conducted by Harry D. Baker at 107 and 109 North Channing avenue. Grairo has been occupying the third-story front room. Mrs. Lucas has occupied the second room on the floor, her room and that of Grairo being on opposite sides of a narrow hall leading to the top of the winding stairs.

At 5:20 o'clock Mrs. Lucas was awakened by a smothering sensation. She started up and found her room filled with smoke and illuminated fitfully by flashes of flame.

She leaped out of bed and rushed into the hallway. The stairway was in flames and the clouds of smoke and sparks were rolling up. She threw herself against the door of Grairo's room and ran into his room screaming "Fire!"

Grairo leaped out through the other window and seized her by the arm with his left hand, holding to the window casing with his right.

"Don't jump," he said, "help will come." Black smoke, pierced now and then by a tongue of flame, was pouring from the windows, almost stifling them.

Flames were breaking from the windows below them, threatening to sweep up and swallow them. The heat inside the room was becoming momentary intense. Grairo's hand was being blistered.

Both were screaming for help. They could hear the crash of the front steps and the shouting of the firemen. They could hear the crash of the front steps and the shouting of the firemen.

They heard the distant clanging of a gong and the shouting of the firemen. They knew the firemen were coming. The woman, frantic and Grairo had all he could do to keep her from throwing herself to the ground.

Prayed That He Might Hold On. He could see the light of the apparatus coming south on Channing avenue. But would he be able to hold on until help came? He prayed to Buddha that he might.

DEMOCRATS ADMIT DEFEAT IN MISSOURI

Judge Evans Says That Cook and Allen Have Been Heavily Snowed Under.

HIS FLING AT STONE
Senator Criticizes Democratic Campaign Managers, but What Did He Do?

Judge W. N. Evans, chairman of the Democratic state committee, conceded the defeat of Secretary of State Sam B. Cook and Auditor Albert O. Allen, both candidates for re-election on the Democratic state ticket.

He said the overwhelming vote recorded against Cook and Allen in St. Louis and Kansas City, coupled with the fact that both have run far behind the gubernatorial nominees makes it practically impossible to hope for their success.

As to the rest of the state ticket, Chairman Evans said: "I believe the complete returns will show that we have elected the Democratic candidates for treasurer, railroad commissioner, attorney general and supreme judge by small pluralities."

"I estimate Folk's plurality at 40,000, of which he has received 22,000 in St. Louis city and Jackson County."

"It is apparent that thousands of Republicans throughout the state voted for Folk for governor and for the Republican state and national tickets. This is particularly true in the western part of the state."

"The Democrats have lost eight congressmen, in the Third, Fifth, Fourth, Seventh, Tenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth districts."

"Our defeat is due chiefly to the big stay-at-home vote. The Republicans polled almost their full strength."

"We are still hoping for the Parker electors, but our figures at the present time would indicate that the state has gone for Roosevelt."

Cotton Planters Wouldn't Vote. The apathy regarding the national ticket was remarkable. For the first time in 20 years southeast Missouri joins the Republican column.

We have extensive cotton fields down there and the cotton pickers simply would not go to the polls. They said they were satisfied with things as they are and as all of them are Democrats they cost the ticket many thousand votes.

The legislature is Republican on joint ballot. "I am a little surprised that Senator Stone should jump into print with a criticism of the Democratic state organization."

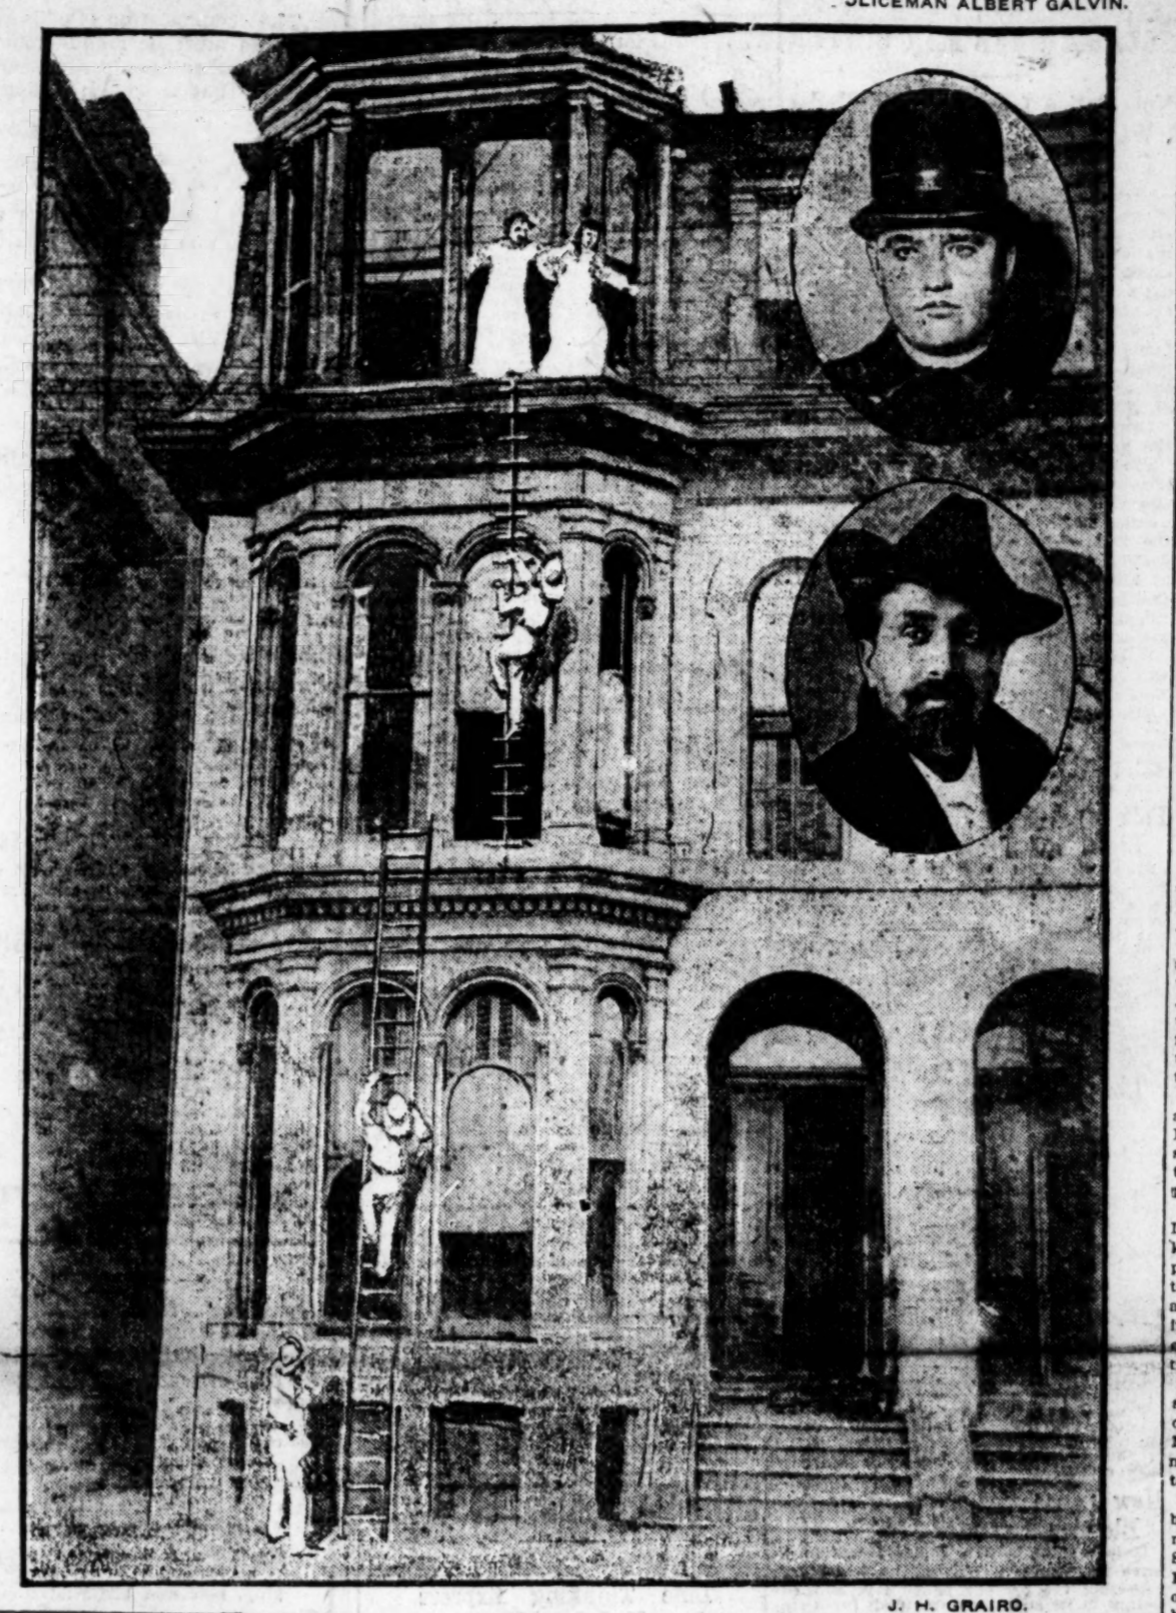

He says, in effect, that the new responsibility for the election of Folk are Democratic traitors. Well, how about Senator Stone? Has he done anything to help the ticket?

"I believe it is a fact that Missouri went Republican in 1884 during Stone's administration as governor. Might we not say with equal truth that the Democratic state committee which managed that campaign owed its failure to Stone?"

WOMAN'S QUARREL LED TO INSANITY

New York Exposition Visitor Disagreed With Cousin and Mind Is Temporarily Unbalanced.

Her mind temporarily unbalanced by bereavements and by a quarrel with her cousin, Mrs. W. A. Applegate of 44 Barrow street, New York, wife of a wholesale milliner who had come to St. Louis to see the World's Fair, is at the City Hospital.

She was taken to the institution Wednesday night from Union Station at the request of her friend, Miss E. M. Cooper of 21 West Eleventh street, New York.

Mrs. Applegate, Miss Cooper and Mrs. Maybeck, cousin of Mrs. Applegate, came to St. Louis a week ago and took rooms at the Albany, Page and Euclid avenues.

Sunday Mrs. Applegate and Mrs. Maybeck quarreled with considerable violence. Miss Cooper did not know the cause, but she finally stepped between the two women and asked Mrs. Maybeck to leave Mrs. Applegate's room.

That night Mrs. Maybeck left the Albany, saying that she was going to Chicago to visit her sister, Mrs. Bell, at 38 Burlington avenue, in that city.

Mrs. Applegate's mother and father and a sister died within a year and it was in the hope of diverting her mind from her grief that she was induced to come to the Fair. But brooding over the quarrel with her cousin, coupled with her grief, unseated her reason.

Wednesday evening, she declared to Miss Cooper that she would not stay at the hotel any longer. Miss Cooper asked her where she was going. She said she did not know. Miss Cooper went with her to prevent harm befalling her. Mrs. Applegate went to Union Station and began to walk back and forth through the midway. She declared she was going to stay there all night.

SHE CAN NEITHER THINK NOR SPEAK

Afflicted With Strange Malady Woman Is Taken from Street Car to City Hospital.

City hospital physicians and expert neurologists are at a loss to account for the strange affliction of the young and beautiful unidentified woman who was taken from a Chouteau avenue street car, at Seventh and Pine streets, and removed to the City Hospital at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The woman is beautiful. Her face has every indication of culture and refinement. The lines and features, the well-set eyes and the fine nose indicate uncommon intelligence. Her neat dress and manner show that she is a woman of good breeding.

At the City Hospital, as soon as it became apparent that her case was peculiar, Dr. John Young Brown, superintendent, was called. After an examination he pronounced the woman's affliction aphasia, or a paralysis of the nerve centers governing speech.

This disease is so peculiar in its nature that the power of consecutive thought is sometimes taken away with the power of speech.

Dr. Brown called Dr. W. W. Graves of Vandeventer and Washington avenue, who agreed with his diagnosis and took notes on the woman's condition. He was, however, unable to give the cause of the malady or prescribe a cure.

Thursday Dr. Graves, Dr. Brown and other nerve specialists are pondering over the case and searching for precedents to learn how to proceed with treatment.

The girl, during a moment of rational thought, muttered the name "McCormick." Then for a considerable period she was again unable to speak. In answer to repeated questions as to where she lived she started to speak, then as she saw the power vanishing from her again, she sighed, "Oh, wait a minute." She evidently believed that the power of speech and thought would shortly return.

DISCREPANCY GIVES NEW HOPE TO OTTO

Evident Mistake in Vote for Circuit Attorney in 26th Ward to Be Investigated.

The discovery Thursday of a discrepancy in the returns from the twenty-sixth ward led Carl Otto, the Democratic candidate for circuit attorney, to take new hope and he said he thought it possible that the apparent majority of Mr. Sager might dwindle away.

The returns from the Twenty-sixth ward gave Sanger 3,006 and Otto 2,472. As the registration in the ward was only 4,600, it is evident that one or the other of the candidates has been credited with 100 too many votes.

Mr. Otto thinks it is Mr. Sager who has the advantage of the mistake on the face of the returns. If this should be true his apparent majority of 534 would be cut down to 188 in the city, and Mr. Otto thinks that other mistakes may be discovered which will cut it down more.

The discovery of the discrepancy was made by the board of election commissioners' office Thursday morning. This question has not been definitely settled. Ten representatives of the Democratic and Republican parties will watch the clerks count the returns. Harry H. Howes, who was in the election commissioners' office Thursday morning, said that the Democratic watchers had not been selected at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Otto points out that the unofficial returns from the Twenty-sixth ward show a vote of 3,006 for Sager and 2,160, or 846 less, for Johnson. Republican nominees for assistant circuit attorney, while the vote of 2,472 for Otto is greater by 313 than that of 2,160 for Sager.

JAPAN HAS ASKED RUSSIA FOR PEACE AND IS REFUSED

Tentative Approach in the Interest of Humanity Met By Determined Opposition From Ministers of the Czar Who Would Fight It Out.

ROOSEVELT MAY BEAR OLIVE BRANCH

Suggestion Made by Lansdowne That the United States, Great Britain and France Act in Concert to Bring About Cessation of Hostilities.

LONDON, Nov. 10, 4:55 p. m.—Japan unofficially has made representations to Russia looking to peace. This action has resulted in failure, and such representations, even privately, are not likely to be repeated by Japan.

SPOKE WITH JAPAN'S KNOWLEDGE

Although the suggestion of a pacific settlement was made unofficially, it had behind it all the weight of an offer by the Japanese government. It was made direct to Russia. No power acted as an intermediary. The proposition was put forward tentatively and unofficially so that the Japanese government would be in a position to deny any report that it was suing for peace.

The failure of these direct negotiations, however, resulted in bringing intervention within a measurable distance. Foreign Secretary Lansdowne's plea for arbitration yesterday evening at the Guild Hall banquet is taken here to be a pointed suggestion to the United States and France that the time is approaching when the powers must take some action.

It may be definitely stated that Lord Lansdowne made his speech with full knowledge that Japan will not resent a proposition looking to peace from the three powers (the United States, France and Great Britain). There is a definite impression here that the initiative will come from President Roosevelt, though the action would be joint.

It is mooted that Lord Lansdowne only spoke so openly yesterday evening because he had good reason to believe that Mr. Roosevelt, if elected, contemplated making an effort to bring the belligerents to discuss terms of peace.

Lord Lansdowne's remarks are held by those in his confidence to mean that whatever the United States may do in the matter, Great Britain will co-operate, even in the event of France not participating. It is known, however, that Ambassador Cambon, who continues his work assiduously to bring about some arrangement, hopes for joint action by the three powers.

Baron Hayashi Expects Action to Be Taken.

In an interview, regarding the foregoing, Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, said: "I should not be surprised to see the powers named, or two of them, take the action suggested. Exactly upon what basis of a settlement peace could be secured, it is at present impossible to see, but there is not the slightest doubt that combined representations, especially if led by Roosevelt, would have a far-reaching effect between two countries, one of which was thoroughly defeated. It is comparatively easy to make peace in this case, as neither side is thoroughly defeated yet."

The prospects for the success of friendly intervention have vastly increased. Since the commencement of the war the two nations now respect each other to a degree never dreamed of before they met in battle.

Their mutual respect is the most hopeful factor for peace. Japan does not desire to go on fighting forever. Yet, even with all the victories won during this war, her statesmen would render themselves liable to be most seriously misunderstood, especially if they were to make peace.

Mrs. Bersch To Get Her Divorce
In Judge Blevins' Division of the Circuit Court Thursday, the application for divorce of Mrs. Ida Bersch, wife of Edmund Bersch, convicted of bribery and now serving a two years' sentence in the penitentiary, was begun.

Failure to provide and unfaithfulness were the causes alleged. The fact of Bersch's conviction and imprisonment was brought out and, while Mrs. Bersch was on the stand, Judge Blevins asked for a certified copy of the record of Bersch's conviction.

Mrs. Bersch's attorney said he did not have it with him, and added that Mrs. Bersch did not ask for divorce on the grounds of his conviction or imprisonment. Judge Blevins insisted that a copy of the record be submitted in court.

When that was done tomorrow he would grant the decree of divorce. There were tears in Mrs. Bersch's eyes when she left the stand, and she declared to friends that she did not ask or want a divorce on the ground of her husband's imprisonment.

If there were the only thing against him," she said, "I would stick to him forever."

Mrs. Bersch stated that she was married Dec. 3, 1897, and that the separation occurred June 3, 1904. Bersch was sent to the penitentiary July 19, 1903, since then Mrs. Bersch has been conducting a rooming place at 614 Washington boulevard, she says at 614 Washington boulevard, she says at 614 Washington boulevard, she says at 614 Washington boulevard.

STOESSSEL ASKS JAPANESE FOR AN ARMISTICE.

TOKIO, Nov. 10 (10:45 a. m.)—It is reported that Gen. Stoessel, commanding at Port Arthur, has asked the Japanese for an armistice, the purpose of which is not stated. A confirmation of the report is unobtainable.

It is hoped here that Gen. Stoessel will capitulate before the city proper is taken. The Japanese soldiers are angry on account of the alleged abuse of power by the Russians. They believe they will be murdered if captured. Under these conditions it will possibly be difficult to avoid a massacre when the troops meet in the final combat.

ETZEL MOUNTAIN A JAPANESE OBSTACLE.

CHIFUO, Nov. 10 (Noon).—Etzel mountain, according to Chinese, 120 of whom arrived here today from Port Arthur, is proving a costly obstacle to the Japanese. On the morning of Nov. 5 and 6 fierce assaults on the position were made by the Japanese, who were repulsed. During the assaults a shell, scoring over the other hills from Pailichuang, dropped on the mountain and demolished a land mine controlling the station and exploded other mines.

The Russians were holding the trenches on the boundary of the mined section, 60 or 70 were killed. The Japanese, having not reached the place were unhurt. Etzel mountain over the top part of its strength to the peculiar topography of the surrounding country, which prevents a direct artillery fire against it, enable the Japanese to advance trenches with the success evident elsewhere.

The Japanese advanced on it in both instances from behind distant hills with the fullest force the ground would allow, but the long distance, which they were compelled to traverse in the face of machine guns, their tanks and batteries, three times the Japanese broke the wire entanglements in places.

PRESIDENT MAY COME TO FAIR

Committee of Invitation Calls To-day and His Official Family Think He Will Accept.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The committee consisting of Mayor Wells, W. H. Thompson and Corwin H. Spencer, will call upon President Roosevelt today, and invite him to attend the World's Fair. There is some probability that he will accept.

Secretary Loeb said this morning that the President had not yet decided and will not announce his decision until after he has had his talk with the committee. There is a general feeling around the White House this morning that the President will decide to attend the Fair.

SOCIALIST VOTE WAS LARGE

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Chicago and Milwaukee are the centers of socialism in the United States, according to the vote polled. In Milwaukee the Socialists polled more votes than the Democrats, 2,000, and elected four assemblymen and one senator. In Chicago, Debs got 45,000. In 1900 the vote was 6,000. The Socialists here are enthusiastic over their showing. National Secretary Malloy says:

"Four years ago we polled a total of 36,417. This year we will have 75,000 and perhaps 1,000,000. We will have 25,000 in Illinois, 40,000 in New York, 30,000 in Wisconsin, Indiana and Missouri. Among cities, Chicago has the largest socialist vote."

VANDIVER TO GET SEIBERT'S PLACE?

Chief Exponent of Shattered State Machine Not Expected to Retain Fat Office.

SALARY GRAB MAY SUFFER

New Police Law Proposed, Under Which Nelson W. McLeod May Control Department.

Joseph W. Folk, elected governor of Missouri on the Democratic ticket by a plurality of 25,000 to 40,000, and seemingly the only Democrat on the state ticket saved from the political wreckage of Tuesday's election, will assume the duties of his office at Jefferson City January 9, 1905. This gives the politician two months to figure on some of the things Mr. Folk is going to do as chief executive, and particularly what is to happen in the matter of state appointments.

There are all sorts of official prizes at the disposal of the governor.

The most lucrative is that of excise commissioner of St. Louis, now held by Ex-Excise Commissioner James M. Seibert.

Seibert was one of the chief managers of the Democratic machine, which has met defeat at the hands of the voters of Missouri. The Cardwell case revealed the fact that he was chief solicitor of "salish funds" from corporations for the use of the Democratic party.

Friends of the governor-elect say Seibert will be the first man to feel the effects of Folk's official ax.

The office nets Excise Commissioner Seibert an income of $18,000 a year. This is based on fees, 60 per cent of which goes into the state treasury and the balance into the excise commissioner's coffers, from saloon licenses.

Folk May Stop Big Salary Grab.

St. Louis saloons are increasing at the rate of 200 a year, and as each saloon pays a total of $18 to the commissioner every year, it will be seen that the revenue for 1905 will be increased $3,600.

Mr. Folk may upset the hopes of the politicians with respect to this salary grab. He is on record as saying that the revenue of the excise commissioner, which is greater than that of the governor, secretary of state, auditor and treasurer combined, is altogether too large.

He thinks that should be put on a salary basis. There is very little labor attached to the office, and under the Seibert regime the responsibility has been reduced to the minimum.

Another desirable plum is that of the St. Louis coal oil inspector, held by "Billy" Flynn, the thirteenth ward statesman.

There is nothing to indicate at this time that "Billy," who was an aggressive opponent of Mr. Folk's nomination, will be asked to retain this job, which is worth $700 a year.

It is believed that Congressman W. D. Vandiver, Mr. Folk's chief campaign manager, has an excellent chance of being the next excise commissioner of St. Louis, while there is no limit to the number of candidates who could fill Flynn's official shoes.

In this connection the name of James L. Carlinson, former police commissioner, has been frequently mentioned.

The governor appoints three police and election commissioners for St. Louis. Each election commissioner receives a salary of $300 a year and the police commissioners $100 apiece.

New Police Election Laws.

It is said to be Mr. Folk's intention to have introduced a bill in the legislature repealing the present police law and enacting in its stead one providing for a single election commissioner for St. Louis, who shall be appointed by the mayor. In this event the veto power would be vested in the governor, a system which is to which no obtains in New York.

While Nelson W. McLeod is not a candidate for any office under Mr. Folk, a great many of Mr. Folk's friends think he would make an ideal police commissioner for St. Louis.

St. Louis will undoubtedly have a new election law, and the present election board system will be changed, according to Republicans who expect to control the legislature. Outside St. Louis the state warden at Jefferson City, the state insurance commissioner, state supervisor of building and loan associations and other official positions will each receive a salary of $300 a year. In addition to this there are many state boards whose members are appointed by the governor.

In every county of the state the governor appoints a coal oil inspector. In short, there are at least 7000 political jobs directly or indirectly at his disposal.

Mr. Folk decides he has decided to give a reward of any kind to anyone, but the politicians are figuring just the same.

And within the next 24 hours the governor-elect will probably be in possession of a thousand applications from persons who say they have aided his election and who think they would make ideal assistants in his administration.

FEDERAL GRANDJURY IS DRAWN

Judge Adams Scores Naturalization Frauds in Delivering His Charge to Jurors.

The grandjury which will inquire into alleged violations of Federal statutes in the Eastern district of Missouri convened under instructions of Judge Elmer B. Adams of the United States District Court Thursday morning.

The sixteen men who have been drawn from St. Louis and towns in the district to determine who has and who has not violated the laws were given instructions by Judge Adams. Particularly were violations of the naturalization laws condemned and instructions to ferret out this evil in St. Louis were given.

Judge Adams charged the jury that it made no difference whether the violator of this law be high or low, if he was found to be guilty of procuring fraudulent naturalization papers or to have fraudulent papers in his possession, an indictment must be returned against him.

Selling whisky without license, counterfeiting, get-rich-quick schemes, embezzlement of the postoffice funds, operation of letters unlawfully, oleomargarine laws and other subjects are to be inquired into by the jury.

The jury members are: H. A. Koehler, J. S. Fugate, O. L. Whitlaw, Park G. Fannan, E. W. Harward, E. W. Phillips, Perry, Edward Mallinckrodt, Lewis Perry and Edwin B. Smith, St. Louis; John Schwab, Sr., Frontenac; Thomas J. Phillips, Perry; W. H. Perkins, Troy, and G. C. Daniel, Vandalia.

Twelve votes out of the 16 are required to return an indictment.

"ELECTION OVER," SAYS SHERIFF BELL

Rescues Citizen From Second Deportation—This Money Business Must Stop.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Nov. 10.—Frank P. Mannix, county clerk who was deported several months ago and returned to his office on last Monday, was deported again by William Carruthers, his former deputy, and three other men. He was rescued by Sheriff Bell, who rode rapidly after the deporting committee with a posse. The sheriff commanded the committee to deliver up their man and desist, saying "Election is over, and this money business must stop."

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. It disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal is Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, which are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of the large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some cases a patent preparation, I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

RUBBISH FOR DOING FIRE KILLS THREE PERSONS

Boys Prepared to Celebrate and Some Person Ignited Their Heap of Combustibles While They Were Stored in a Tenement.

TWO GIRLS AND AN OLD MAN BURNED

Helpless Paralytic, Under the Stress of Danger, Left His Bed and Was Burned to a Crisp at the Stair Head.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Three persons were burned to death half a dozen others were overcome by smoke and saved only with the greatest difficulty by the firemen, and more than thirty others, after a thrilling experience on a narrow and crowded fire escape, were taken to the street in their nightclothes, in a fire which practically destroyed a five-story apartment house on the upper East side today.

Of the three victims, two were young girls, Blanche and Lillian Chlan, 15 and 18 years old, and the other was their grandfather, Frederick Wehber, 65 years old. Wehber was a helpless paralytic, yet under the excitement of the terrible fate threatening him he arose from his bed and made his way to the hall, where his body, burned to a crisp, was found.

The fire is believed to have been incendiary. It started in a mass of boxes, barrels and broken furniture which lay piled underneath the stairway leading to the basement. This rubbish is said to be part of a quantity gathered by some of the boys in the house for an election bonfire, but taken away from them by the police.

Most of it was kerosene-soaked.

ODELL $300,000 AHEAD ON BETTING

Suspicion Aroused in New York
That Governor-Chairman Hood
winked the Gamblers.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—This is pay day in New York for those who lost on the election. Reports in the street are that between $2,000,000 and $2,500,000 will change hands. It is difficult to find the losers, but the heaviest winners generally are known to be A. A. Houseman & Co., who took in about $700,000.

Sheffield & McCullough backed Roosevelt for about $500,000, while Bunnett & Buchanan, who placed in all about $400,000, are also heavy winners.

Among the losers are those who placed commissions of $100,000 of Democratic money through Batchelor & Adee. M. J. Kiernan said that he had lost about $50,000, mostly on Parker carrying New York, for account of prominent Democrats. All of these are brokers and not men in the political ring.

The slaughter of Democrats was all the more extensive, as long odds on the general result tempted them to place bets that way in combination with what they considered the Republican campaign committee, in collusion with Gov. Odell, winked the gambling fraternity by holding back the best forecasts.

FATHER FIRLE TO BRING PALLIUM

Reported That He Will Return
From Rome With Honor for Archbishop Glennon.

It is believed in St. Louis that the Rev. Joseph A. Firle, C. S. R., of St. Alphonsus Church, Grand and Finney avenues, who has gone to Rome at the request of the canonization of Blessed Gerard Magella, which takes place Dec. 8, will be entrusted with the mission of bringing to St. Louis Archbishop Glennon's pallium, which will invest the archbishop with the full dignity of his office.

It is the custom to send the pallium by express in Rome at the time it is conferred and no special messenger is sent to Rome for the purpose. Although there are number of priests from America in Rome, it is thought it will be more convenient for Rev. Firle to bring the pallium.

It is not probable that the pallium will reach St. Louis before the latter part of December. Archbishop Glennon will be invested with it at a ceremony of much pomp probably in January or February, though he may decide to postpone the ceremony until Easter.

PRUDENT HOUSEKEEPERS

Will read the "Ready-to-Wear" Bargains in FRIDAY'S POST-DISPATCH.

Dr. George Walton Buried.
The funeral of Dr. George Walton, who died at his residence, 1108 South Eleventh street, Tuesday night, of meningitis, was held Thursday morning from Holy Angels Church, St. Ange avenue and La Salle street. Rev. Father Riley conducted the service. Dr. Walton was 65 years old and was a widow and two children, Fred and Miss Nellie Walton. He was graduated from a medical college in New York state and moved to Clarksville, Ill., removing thence to St. Louis in 1896. Interment was in Calvary cemetery.

Longer Holiday Period Anted.
World's Fair officials have sent letters to the heads of schools in all of the central states requesting that the usual Thanksgiving holiday be made to include the week beginning Nov. 20, in order that the students may have another opportunity to visit the Exposition. Special days will be given over to schools that send large delegations. Valparaiso day for the schools of Valparaiso, Ind., has been set for Nov. 24. Several hundred students are expected. "Home-Coming" day, which is a day of an antiseptic, cleansing mouth and nostrils, is unsurpassed.

MOB SEARCHING FOR NEGRO VICTIM

Fifty Men From Pine Bluff Go to Benton to Lynch Houston Hooker.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 10.—Another attempt to lynch Houston Hooker, a negro train porter, who killed Conductor Atwood in a coach on a train from Ft. Smith, Oct. 25, was made early this morning at Benton, making the third attempt.
 A mob of 50 men left Pine Bluff last night and reached Benton four hours later, but were unable to find their intended victim, as officers had received word of their coming and spirited Hooker away. The men went over the Pine Bluff & Western Railroad—which is not yet completed—all the way to Benton, though the rails are laid without ties, and carried six handcars to be used over the new track. The mob reached Benton at an early hour, and went at once to the county jail and demanded that Hooker be turned over to them. They were allowed to go through the jail and found that he was not there. At this hour they are still in Benton searching for the negro.

REPUBLICANS WILL CUT THE SOUTH'S REPRESENTATION

Organ of the Party Says That Where "the Negro Does Not Vote He Shall Not Be Counted in the Census Which Makes Up Representation in Congress."

WILL GIVE SOUTH CHOICE OF PLANS

Republicans Are Not Agreed That the Negro Should Vote, But Are Agreed That He Should Not Give States Disfranchising Him Electoral Vote.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
 NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Press (Republican) has a Washington dispatch today concerning Mr. Roosevelt's negro suffrage plans that is directly opposed to other information printed here today. The Press says:
 "It was said by President Roosevelt a few days ago that he would give every man a square deal."
 "That promise to the nation undoubtedly will be carried out, and it will strike the Tillmans and the Vardamans of the South with terrific force."
 "Now that the issues have been decided for four years, if not more, President Roosevelt and the members of his cabinet are determined upon legislation which will make one white man equal to any other white man in respect of his vote, and which will provide that if southern bosses disfranchise the colored voter they may do so only with the loss of representation in Congress and the consequent diminution of their votes in the electoral college."
 "There is to be a complete realignment of political conditions. Representation in Congress for the Southern states will be cut down to fewer than 100 votes. All the declaration by Senator Daniel of Virginia and all the vituperation by Tillman of South Carolina will not affect the purpose of the 'man on horseback'—this description of the President being taken literally from the speech of Carl Schurz, and they are united in the belief that if the Democratic leaders of the South want only a white vote they must be satisfied with a representation of the white vote in Congress and in the electoral college."
 "This is what they are to receive from the next Congress, and it is no violation of confidence to say that nearly every Northern Democrat in the House of Representatives will be glad to see this state of affairs established."

TO DISCUSS PARK RESTORATION

Board of Public Improvements Will Call Meeting to Hear Architects' Suggestions.

President Hiram Phillips of the Board of Public Improvements says that as soon as George E. Kessler, chief landscape architect of the World's Fair, completes his plans for the restoration of Forest Park, a special meeting of the board will be called and that in all probability the plans will be adopted.
 Mr. Kessler has already presented to the board a rough sketch of his plans, which leaves the Fine Arts building, Art Hill as the only mark of the Exposition. It is intended to restore the low land, on which the larger buildings of the Exposition are located into a meadow.

WIFE OF EARLY MAYOR DEAD

End Comes to Mrs. Agnes A. Kennett, Christ Church's Oldest Member.

The funeral of Mrs. Agnes A. Kennett, 84 years old, who died of senility at her home, 302 Lucas avenue Tuesday, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Christ Church Cathedral, Thirteenth and Locust streets. Burial will be in Bellefontaine Cemetery.
 Mrs. Kennett was the wife of the late Luther M. Kennett, for three terms mayor of St. Louis, the first time in 1850. She married Mr. Kennett in 1851, when he was vice-president of the original Missouri Pacific Railroad.
 At her death she was surrounded by her three sons, Francis J. Kennett of Chicago, Luther M., Jr., and Chas. Kennett of St. Louis. Mrs. Kennett was the oldest member of Christ Church.

SEAT IN SENATE MAY BE NIEDRINGHAUS' REWARD FOR SERVICE TO PARTY

THOMAS KAY NIEDRINGHAUS.

Business Man, Whose Management of Campaign Caused Missouri to Go Republican, Has Become a National Figure—Has Never Asked for Office.

Thomas K. Niedringhaus of St. Louis has become a national figure by reason of his successful management of the Republican campaign in Missouri and of the announcement by other party leaders that he will be the Republican choice to succeed United States Senator Cockrell.

Until the beginning of the campaign just ended Mr. Niedringhaus was little known outside his home city, St. Louis. He had been a member of the Missouri state committee for a few years, but, in the years of Democratic successes, the public at large did not pay much attention to the personnel of the losing party organization.

But in St. Louis Mr. Niedringhaus was very intimately known to Republican party leaders and party workers. For more than ten years he had been a member of the Republican city central committee and for a number of years he had been a member of the Missouri state central committee. In the latter position he had never failed to secure the financial necessities of the campaign.

All the time that Thomas K. Niedringhaus was a member of the city and state committees, his associates say, he asked office neither for himself nor his friends, simply "worked with the boys," as they put it, "and helped them all he could."

Quit Business to Help His Party.

Mr. Niedringhaus' jump into state prominence came with the Walbridge boom. The same men who planned to win the gubernatorial nomination for Walbridge aimed to make Niedringhaus state chairman. They won their fight for Walbridge at St. Joseph, but had considerable difficulty in sidetracking other candidates for state chairman.

Once Mr. Niedringhaus became chairman, he began a remarkable campaign. He quit business temporarily and devoted his entire energy to changing Missouri's political complexion. He was not content merely to direct state affairs, but he jumped into the Republican city convention and demanded the nomination of Sager for circuit attorney. He got it, party workers say, because it was the first thing he had ever asked of the party in return for his work.

Mr. Niedringhaus organized his campaign headquarters along the lines followed by George Bruce Cortelyou at national headquarters. He predicted Republican success at all times. Even his own subordinates thought him over sanguine, but results have shown he was not.

Mr. Niedringhaus is a comparatively young man. He is about 42. His father, Frederick G. Niedringhaus, served one term in Congress from the eleventh district. That was some fifteen years ago, and Thomas K. Niedringhaus has been a student of politics ever since.

The Republican state chairman has been for years better known in the commercial and social world of St. Louis than he has been politically. He is a wealthy man, and is the general manager of the St. Louis branch of the National Enameling and Plating Company.

In a group of politicians Mr. Niedringhaus could be recognized anywhere by the color of his hair. It is very light blond, almost golden in shade. His complexion is ruddy and healthy. His build is stout, smooth-faced and of medium height.

He is a serious, pleasant, determined man.

Missouri Congressmen Are Evenly Divided.

One amazing result of the election is that an equal number of Republicans and Democrats were elected to Congress from Missouri. The Republicans will seek to gain a majority by contesting the election of James T. Hunt in the eleventh district and T. Hunt in the eleventh district and of E. E. Woods in the twelfth district.

First district—James T. Lloyd (Dem.).

Second district—William W. Rucker (Dem.).

Third district—Frank D. Klepper (Rep.).

Fourth district—Frank B. Fulkerson (Rep.).

Fifth district—David A. De Armond (Dem.).

Sixth district—John Wolborn (Rep.).

Seventh district—Dorsey W. Shackelford (Dem.).

Eighth district—Champ Clark (Dem.).

Ninth district—Richard Bartholdt (Rep.).

Tenth district—John T. Hunt (Dem.).

Eleventh district—Ernest E. Wood (Dem.).

Twelfth district—Marion R. Rhodes (Rep.).

Thirteenth district—William T. Truitt (Rep.).

Fourteenth district—Cassius M. Sharlet (Rep.).

Fifteenth district—Robert Lamar (Dem.).

If I remember right, you saw
The fatuous faults of social law.

At twenty-five you braved the storm
And dug the trenches of Reform,
Stung by some gadfly in your breast
Which would not let your spirit rest.

At thirty-five you made a pause
To sum the columns of The Cause;
You noted, with unwilling eye,
The heedless world had passed you by.

At forty you had always known

Information Worth Having in the Home

100-Year-Old Recipe.

THIS recipe for seed cakes is nearly 100 years old: Beat well together 2 cups of sugar and 1 of butter, then add 1 cup of milk. First dissolve 1 teaspoon of soda in it, then add flour enough to roll thin. Before stirring in the flour, put a heaping teaspoon of cinnamon and 2 tablespoons of caraway seeds.

Washing Linen.

A little pipe clay dissolved in the water used in washing linen saves a great deal of labor and soap, and cleans the dirtiest linen thoroughly. This method is especially useful in towns where outdoor bleaching is generally an impossibility.

Toilet Vinegar.

When traveling or when on a sea voyage the washing water often has a very disagreeable smell. To remove this a little toilet vinegar should be put in. A cheap and easy way of making this is as follows: Take a quart of brown vinegar and into it place half a pound of fresh lavender. Let this soak for two weeks, then strain through a muslin bag.

The Cooking Smell.

To remove the smell of cooking pour into a pint of boiling water a few drops of oil of lavender. Open the window of the room and carry the basin round a few times. In a few minutes all odor of cooking will have disappeared.

For Parquetry.

The polishing of parquetry is made easy by the use of a heavy iron block, shod with thick felt. This is manipulated by means of an ordinary broom handle, sliding easily across the floor and quickly polishing its waxed surface.

Housework Training.

So much is said nowadays of the training of women to understand different kinds of housework and of the training of servants

BEAUTY AS A CIVIC ASSET.

By Nina Greasley-Smith, Granddaughter of Horace Greasley.

Nina Greasley-Smith.

From Norton Kan, comes the latest idea in municipal improvement. The city fathers of this western town, realizing that its merit, far outstripped prosperity, decided that what Norton needed was young men, that nothing attracted young men like pretty young women, and that, consequently, the photographs of Norton's most beautiful girls should be gathered together and scattered broadcast by the local press.

Following this decision, the smiling faces of lovely women now make their daily appearance in print and Norton confidently awaits its boom.

Who can say what part in a city's prosperity the beauty of its women may bestow? Perhaps the Kansas town is merely ahead of the times in recognizing officially the power of feminine pulchritude. How many of New York's yearly increasing population does it owe to its pretty girls?

The dream of a pictured face has drawn men over seas, across mountains, and among the great, unsalaried ranks of St. Louis's beauties are many mute, inglorious magnets that lure the traveler to linger within our gates and finally to marry and become one with us.

But St. Louis, unlike Norton, Kan., does not suffer from a lack of appreciation. Indeed, if the plaintive advocates of the restriction of immigration are to be believed, it is appreciated too much. But why, even if such be the case, enact discriminating and unjust laws? Why not let Mayor Wells and the Municipal Assembly order all the ugly women in the city to be photographed and the results published in the great dailies? This surely ought to be efficacious. For if the Norton theory that pretty women allure the immigrant is correct, it follows that ugly women must flow like tide of population may be checked or increased by a judicious selection of feminine photographs, and ugly women and pretty women alike pleased by appearance in the public prints.

It remained for Kansas—always progressive in its treatment of women—to accord this final recognition of her power. It is to be hoped, however, that our eastern states and cities will follow the example of enterprising Norton, Kan., and that soon the position of official beauty and charm-in-chief of the possible settler will be as much sought by young women as any of the sugar-coated civil-service plums now coveted by young men.

It is nice to be beautiful for one's self, nicer to be beautiful for one's friends. But how can either of these compare with the glorious privilege of being beautiful for one's city.

The situation might give rise to jealousies and heartburnings, to be sure, but even these would be swallowed up in the prospect before the winner of making of her beauty a benefaction.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

When you hear a girl has aspirations to be a great actress it is a sign she may get in the chorus if she is built that way. A woman calls her youngster cute when he gorges out your eye with his finger, and expects you to be tickled to death over it.

It makes a man feel awful funny to have a girl's mother come into the room and act as if she thought the long hair on his coat was his own.

The reason women can't believe men have souls is that they don't get any more excited over baby's new tooth than over a stock market panic.

A woman can guess at the amount of flour she ought to put in the biscuit and hit it off every time, but you can never make her see the same rule won't work with catching trains.—New York Press.

WHY YOU SHOULD TAKE

WINE of CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is a mild medicine, but a powerful tonic that is unrivalled in its success in the treatment of the diseases peculiar to women.

Over 1,500,000 suffering women have been cured of troubles that ordinarily are thought to require the expensive treatment of specialists, simply by taking this great woman's tonic.

Wine of Cardui recommends itself to modest women of moderate means, because it can be taken in the privacy of the home without submitting to a humiliating local examination and subsequent dangerous treatment.

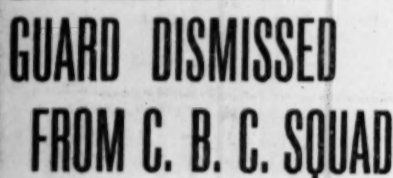

The treatment is not costly and every sufferer can afford it.

If you are a victim of female weakness in any form Wine of Cardui is the medicine that you should take and you cannot afford to lose any time in starting the treatment. Your trouble is ever growing worse—never better.

Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit even chronic troubles of the most serious nature, and in nine out of ten cases it brings an absolute cure. 1,500,000 cured women endorse Wine of Cardui.

You should take Wine of Cardui. Ask your druggist for it today.

"PUBLICITY AND A REAL ISSUE"
SAYS DOUGLAS

Democratic Governor-Elect of Massachusetts Tells the Post-Dispatch Why and How He Swept That State.

TARIFF QUESTION

BROUGHT HOME

Enthusiastic Bostonians Point to Him as a New Moses of the Democrats and Start a 1908 Presidential Boom for Him.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 10.—"Publicity and a real issue," that is William L. Douglas' laconic explanation of his phenomenal victory in being elected the Democratic governor of Massachusetts, with Roosevelt carrying the state by 80,000.

Such a freak of politics is unparalleled in old Massachusetts. Mr. Douglas was not merely elected, he won by a plurality about five times as large as any Democrat and second in size to the plurality of any Republican candidate for governor in the history of the state. And to emphasize and isolate his victory, he was the only Democrat to win all the Republics, from Lieutenant-Governor Curtis Guild down, getting the normal vote.

Already Mr. Douglas is being nominated for President in 1908 and hailed as the newly raised Moses who is to lead the Democratic hosts in a war on the trusts next time. His victory has given a terrible jar to the Lodge machine and is being interpreted as an ominous warning to the "stand-patters."

It was a sign-board and newspaper victory. Every sign-board in the state and every newspaper made his war cry of "Reciprocity; no protection to the trusts," as familiar as the woodcuts of Douglas in the advertisements. They carried the story of his humble early life as a shoe pegger, a doffer boy, driver of a prairie schooner, finally a modest shoemaker and at last a millionaire manufacturer to every corner and crossroads. Poster and newspaper saturated the public with Douglas and his ideas.

Now everybody in Massachusetts is trying to figure out how it happened. The shoemaker-governor-elect told the story to the Post-Dispatch today in his headquarters in the Old South building. He had just come up from Brockton, where 300 of his employees had given him a great ovation. He had been cheered all the way up, and came to Boston to find himself the hero of the day.

The next governor of Massachusetts is a self-made business man, with all the marks of his successful kind. He moves rapidly and speaks decisively.

"I was elected," said he, "because I made my fight upon a single, live, human issue which reached straight into the intimate, everyday affairs of men and women—because of that issue and a generous use of publicity. Advertising had made my business pay, and I used it to the limit in arousing and directing the sentiment which I knew to be widespread on the subject which was our chief issue—reciprocity and tariff relief."

"The central committee ran the campaign, we ran the advertising down at Brockton. From the outset, my idea was to keep our fight and our issue right before the people—to keep just a little more in the public view than the Republican candidate."

"I made the fight solely on the proposition that we should have reciprocity, and that all trusts, which sell their products abroad cheaper than we can buy them here should not be permitted to enjoy protection. I gave them practice examples of the working of the tariff. I told them that on every pair of shoes costing $1.00, I turned out of our factories there was a tariff duty of 9 cents on the raw material. I instanced a recent purchase of $20,000 of leather, which I bought from the trust, on which there was a duty of $2,000. I gave concrete illustrations in the woolen, cotton and other trades."

"It was no issue that touched a popular chord. They said in the national campaign that we had no issue. We had the greatest, the most vital of issues. For some reason it was subordinated in our national campaign. It was the one issue of all others to have pressed—it was the thing the people were palpating over. We made our people understand that the tariff and trust question is the same; that it is idle to talk of noing the trust question so long as we are shortening these 'want' papers' under our protection system."

"I told our people that Massachusetts put $4 in the protection pool for every dollar it took out; that our $6,000,000 homes contributed $24,000,000 a year to the trust; that the steel trust alone reaps $30,000,000 a year abroad cheaper than we can buy from it. And yet they have the assurance to tell us the trust question has nothing to do with the tariff."

"In my inaugural I shall begin the work by asking the legislature for permission to investigate all the tariff injustices and report fully. That report I shall seek to have sent to the people under our referendum law, to take steps to procure reciprocity and lower tariff. I do not believe that the Republican legislature will back this effort. I do not think it is willing to shoulder the responsibility. The people have shown what they want."

DOUGLAS AND FOLK IN 1908 CRY DEMOCRATS

Boom for the Governors-Elect Who Won Without National Aid in States Which Gave Their Electoral Votes to Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

NEW YORK'S CHAIRMAN
IS FOR A. B. PARKER.

Bourke Cockran Wants the Party to Await the Mistakes of the Republican Administration Before Picking Men or Policy.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Douglas and Folk is the 1908 ticket for the Democratic party, say many Democrats in this city, as they contemplate the ruin and wreck of Tuesday. The amazing victory of Douglas on a platform practically ignored if not scorned by the Democratic national committee and his interview sent out from Boston today has brought him to the front with a bound.

At the same time New York Democrats, who could do nothing when in absolute control of the party, are gathering bricks to throw at W. J. Bryan and his plans for reorganizing the party. All the men prominently identified with the Parker campaign refused for several hours today to make any statement for publication concerning Mr. Bryan's plans. Then, William S. Rodie, chairman of the Democratic state committee, issued a statement asserting that Tuesday's election reveals the actual strength of the conservative Democracy, which must in the future be the nucleus of a party which will successfully appeal to the country; a party founded on the principle of equal opportunities for every citizen, attracting to its ranks patriotic and thoughtful voters.

"Alton B. Parker is the natural leader of such a Democracy, and he owes it to his country to accept the responsibility."

Mr. Rodie is on terms of close friendship with Judge Parker, and is in the confidence of William F. Sheehan, August Belmont and others who figured in the campaign. The Rodie statement is said to have had the sanction of those men.

The statement was interrupted by politicians as notice that Mr. Parker meant to continue in the fight and dispute any effort which Mr. Bryan may make to obtain the leadership of the party.

William R. Hearst here, as did Mr. Bryan at Lincoln, denied that he, Bryan and Watson were to confer here on a reorganization plan. "I have no knowledge of any meeting between Mr. Watson, Mr. Bryan and myself," said he. "I think the Democratic party will reorganise itself on a basis of true Democracy, eliminating the small street influence that proved so disastrous in this campaign."

W. Bourke Cockran said: "We have been so well beaten that the Democratic party is not left in a position to bring forward a constructive policy at this time. Power has been given into other hands and we must wait to see how that power is used."

"Any man who proposes a positive line of policy to the Democracy now is speaking rather for his own ambition than for the party's good, and his opinion is worth about as much as the rest of what they call it?—that is used to fill up the columns of some country papers."

MAN CLIMBS PILLAR TO PAY BET

Belleville Wager Paid Late at Night—Winner Says He Is Not Satisfied.

Climbing one of the 16-foot pillars which support the porch in front of the Thomas house on East Main street, the gambler John Jansen, a prominent Belleville business man, had to pay for his wager on the election with Gust Schwarz, the landlord of the hotel. Jansen is a boarder at Schwarz's hotel, and it was during a friendly card game in the hotel office that a discussion on the local political situation arose.

The argument became so heated that the only possible termination seemed a wager of some sort. Finally Jansen proposed the pillar-climbing bet. A number of other boarders were called in as witnesses and the stipulations were these: If W. J. Rodieberg, Republican, was elected to congress, Jansen was to climb the pillar, and if J. N. Perrin, Democrat, was elected Schwarz was to do the acrobatic stunt. Inasmuch as the particular pillar designated in the bet is full of old tacks and small nails, the prospect for the loser was not very alluring. It was not stipulated when the bet was to be paid. Late Wednesday night, after nearly every one had retired, pedestrians might have seen a man climbing the pillar to the top of the porch in front of the hotel. Had the pedestrians been curious and stopped to see what the man was doing, they would have seen him try the two doors that lead into the second story of the hotel, they would also have seen him make a few restful of disquiet and then descend to the ground by way of another pillar.

When Schwarz was told that Jansen had paid the wager he would not believe it, not even when he saw the rents caused by the tacks in Jansen's clothing. Schwarz insists that the bet has not been paid, while Jansen and two of his friends say that it has been and that the incident should be considered closed.

THE DESIGNER

"A Magazine of Real Use to Woman"

Number—Out To-day 10c.

I think the best Christmas present that a dollar will buy for the Woman in the Home is a year's subscription to The Designer. It isn't that The Designer is the only magazine that this aim will purchase but there is a cozy, homelike, and attractively practical atmosphere about The Designer, which I do not think is to be found in any other publication in this country.

The next twelve numbers will be far the best in the portrayal of fashions that we have ever issued; best in its departmental treatment; best in its artistic features. You can get a fair idea of what next year's Designer will be from the Christmas number which your newsdealer puts on sale to-day.

The winter fashions are temptingly shown and are appropriately augmented by several pages of charming party costumes for ladies, misses and little girls. Pages of things to give at Christmas and how to make them. Bright Christmas stories; a holiday play for amateur production, and an illustrated article on "Making Up for Private Theatricals" besides the first paper of a notable series "In the Interest of Beauty" under the title of "The Lady and the Lunch" which takes up a subject too often treated with carelessness. The departments edited by our readers are of more than usual interest.
